On that part of the front yesterday we had no fresh counter attacks of any importance by the enemy. The day passed in relative calm, and the troops were able to strengthen the positions they had conquered.

On the Calvario height, west of Gorizia, our attack continued. The crest was reached and we maintained ourselves on it under the furious and concentrated fire of the enemy's artillery.

On the Carso front, after having repulsed feeble attacks of the enemy during the night, we resumed action with vigor in the morning. We took by assault a strong intrenchment near the Church of San Martino del Carso. We took ninety-three prisoners, seven of whom were officers, during yesterday's operations.

OFFICERS ROUNDING UP ALLEGED NIGHT RIDERS

NEW MADRID, Mo., November 24 .wo deputy sheriffs today brought to New Madrid six alleged night riders who were rounded up at Clarkton, Mo., yesterday. Reports that five night riders were wounded in a fight with detectives Monday night near Clarkton were unconfirmed. All was quiet there today.

Armed Men on Guard.

Armed guards kept watch on the outskirts of Clarkton until daybreak today searching for the so-called night riders in order to hamper its movements toward its new positions, but the effort was ineffectual.

Artillery duels continue on the other fronts.

PHISCIAN STATEMENT.

Charged With Attempted Murder. Marshal Norsworthy of Clarkton said the prisoners will be charged with at-tempted murder for their alleged participation in the attack on detectives. The night riders, who are thought to be from laborers and tenants, have committed numerous crimes in the campaign for higher wages, cheaper rentals and lower food prices which they have been waging for months.
